

Alamo Grammar School Site

Dedicated 2000

This well-loved school, the second Alamo Grammar School, was remodeled several times over the years. The original bell tower was removed and the bell placed in the outside yard, presumably because of earthquake safety concerns. In 1904, 61 children were enrolled. Today's Alamo Elementary School at 100 Wilson Road has the original Alamo School bell in its courtyard.

